

LIGHTS ON TAMPA

EVERY NIGHT
THROUGH FEB 1

Site: Ft. Brooke Parking Garage (south façade)
Franklin Street & Brorein
Title: Revamp Fort Brooke
Artists: Sabine Weissinger & Friedrich Foerster (CASA MAGICA)
Concept: Architectural Projection on Fort Brooke Garage
Artist collective, Casa Magica, consisting of Sabine Weissinger and Friedrich Foerster will temporarily re vamp the complete south façade of Fort Brooke Garage by means of classical still image large format projection. Six different images will be shown through out the night.

Site: Storefront at Channelside Drive & Franklin St
Artist: Carlton Ward
Title: Tampa Bay: Living Waters
Concept: Using conservation photography, the artist recognizes the natural wonder of the original Tampa Bay and the human engagement connected to its living waters. Specific environmental messages compliment the images. This installation is a prototype for a developing educational program. The Portals are a part of the Riverwalk Cultural Plan.

Site: Tampa Convention Center & adjacent locations
333 N. Franklin Street and USF Park on the Riverwalk (behind the convention ctr)
Artist: Chris Doyle
Title: Ecstatic City (Tampa)
Concept: Ecstatic City (Tampa) is a project about animating a place, in this case, a district of the city that has as its hub, the Tampa Convention Center. Beginning at dusk, pedestrian areas of the city will be bathed in a gentle wash of spinning light.

Site: Cotanchobee Park
601 St. Pete Times Forum Drive
Artists: Will Pappenheimer & Chipp Jansen
Title: Tampa Public Mood Ring
Concept: Pappenheimer and Jansen's interactive program is hosted by tampabay.com, where online visitors can engage the program and "rate the mood" of the news. When you visit the ring at Cotanchobee Park and it changes color, someone online just engaged with the art.

Site: St. Pete Times Forum plaza
Artist: Marina Zurkow; Music by Lem Jay Ignacio
Title: Slurb  download the soundtrack from www.lightsontampa.org
Concept: Projected animation / Environmental Fantasy (18 min loop)
on January 21, 27, 30, Slurb can be viewed after dark until 7:30, due to Tampa Bay Lightning broadcasts
